KUMBH 2019 Prayagraj
Allahabad- U.P.

1st January, 2019 to 10th March, 2019
Kumbh derives its name from the immortal Pot of Nectar, which the Demigods (Devtas) and Demons (Asuras) fought over, described in ancient Vedic scriptures known as the Puranas. Lord Brahma advised them to churn out the nectar of immortality with the help of the asuras. When the asuras got to know of the devas plan to not share the nectar with them, they chased them for 12 days. During the chase, some of the nectar fell at the four locations Haridwar (River Ganga), Prayag (Triveni sangam of Yamuna, Ganga and Saraswati), Ujjain (River Kshipra), and Nasik (River Godavari). The mela returns to each location after a span of 12 years. It is these Vedic literatures that have stood the test of time, out of which the tradition has evolved into the one that the world now knows as The Kumbh Mela. The festival is one of the largest peaceful gatherings in the world, and considered as the "world’s largest congregation of religious pilgrims". There is no precise method of ascertaining the number of pilgrims, and the estimates of the number of pilgrims bathing on the most auspicious day. The Kumbh Mela is held on the dates when the waters of these sacred rivers are said to turn into nectar. The exact dates are calculated according to a combination of zodiac positions of Jupiter, the Sun and the Moon.

Vedic Tent City initiates & believes that those who bathe in the sacred waters during the Kumbh are eternally blessed by the divine and they come one step closer to salvation.
ABOUT VEDIC TENT CITY

The Vedic tent city is being nurtured from the grounds up to enable pilgrims to transcend over a time horizon and experience the rich VEDIC heritage of India. The masters of architects, designers & artists have all come along together to conceive, curate and bring life to VEDIC tent city with a promise that the Hospitality experience would be cherished for a lifetime.

With an amalgamation of various Vedic rituals in the form of Maha Arti, Hawan area, Shahi Snan, eternally devotional music, divine shows, organic sattvic Cuisine, tented accommodation, served by the best of our Hospitality team, we assure you the most enriching experience of the entire KUMBH FESTIVAL.

The merger of LABH DECORATORS & GANDHI CORPORATION has initiated and nurtured the concept, planning and execution of VEDIC TENT CITY at Kumbh Mela 2019.
